IAB Log #11-40433

Mr. Kirsten J. Foy
Office of the New York City Public Advocate
Director of Community Relations
1 Centre Street, 15th Floor
New York, NY 10007

Dear Mr. Foy:

As you are aware, a complaint registered on your behalf with the New York City Police Department on September 5, 2011, was investigated and reviewed by the Internal Affairs Bureau. The Bureau has determined that there is sufficient evidence to partially substantiate your complaint. Such evidence is necessary if disciplinary procedures are to be instituted, which has occurred in this case. As such, the Department has taken the disciplinary action deemed appropriate, and the case has been closed with an overall disposition of Partially Substantiated.

The Internal Affairs Bureau conducts complete and thorough investigations into allegations of misconduct. Complaints such as yours assist the New York City Police Department in maintaining the highest standards of integrity. We appreciate your cooperation and the opportunity to investigate instances of misconduct, in order to take the appropriate corrective or disciplinary action.

The Internal Affairs is dedicated to fostering a culture of integrity and promoting and ensuring ethical behavior. Therefore, should you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me at 646-610-6650.

Sincerely,
