Some of these groups include: United States Marxist-Lenin Party, Mexican Action Network and Critical Resistance New Orleans Chapter.

- Activists from the Jena Coalition and Critical Resistance were in attendance and presented several documentaries based on the alleged racial profiling and the alleged injustices that people of color faced across the country by their respective police departments. The New York Chapter of the Critical Resistance is located at 976 Longwood Ave Bronx, NY.
- Critical Resistance was formerly located on Atlantic Ave near Clinton Ave (confines of the 77 Pct) and at the time was being lead by Ashanti Alston (former Black Panther and Animal Rights Activist). The group hosted events prior to the 2004 Republican National Convention and was raided by the NYPD for selling alcohol to minors.
- Members from the Malcolm X Grassroots Movement NYC Chapter along with Critical Resistance and members of the Sean Bell family will attend the outcome of the Sean Bell case as well as a demonstration scheduled for Friday April 25, 2008. The demonstration will be held at the Queens DA's office located at 125-01 Queens Boulevard to await the judge's verdict.
- May Day (May 1, 2008) rallies will be held in some of the following cities across the United States: San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, Miami, Boston and New York City. The rally in New York City will take place from 1200 to 1600 hours at Union Square. The rally will focus on an end to the ICE deportations of immigrant families, workplace raids taking place across the United States and the Anti-war movement.
- Marisa Franco, a former member of the Ruckus Society based out of Oakland, CA was present at the conference. Ms. Franco has moved to New York City and she will be organizing the May Day demonstrations along with the International Action Center and her not-for-profit organization, Domestic Worker United based in New York City.
- One workshop was led by Jordan Flaherty, former member of the International Solidarity Movement Chapter in New York City. Mr. Flaherty is an editor and journalist of the Left Turn Magazine and was one of the main organizers of the conference. Mr. Flaherty held a discussion calling for the increase of the divestment campaign of Israel and mentioned two events related to Palestine.
- There may be a counter demonstration by a Palestinian organization held near Washington Square Park on May 8, 2008 against the 60 year independence of Israel.
