RNC INTELLIGENCE SITUATION REPORT

08-31 0700 hours

FINAL REPORT

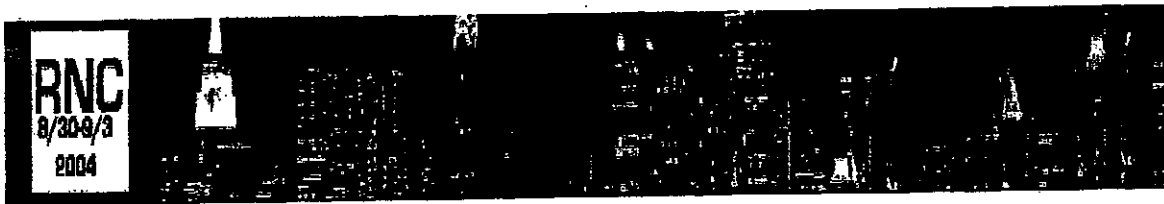

The following is a synopsis of reported activities and relevant responses covering the period of 08/30/2004 1700 hours through 08/31/2004 0700 hours.

SAFETY ALERT

- It has been reported that 4 to 5 out of town males, described as anarchists, reportedly from North Carolina, were observed practicing techniques of escape from police restraints.
- Activist media sites have posted information regarding identifying plain clothed police officers. (Color coded hospital type wristbands)
 - NOTE- In recent protest incidents, plain clothed police officers have been confronted by protestors and subsequently injured.
- Activists have recently considered the use of diversionary tactics to drain the resources of Law Enforcement and compliment spontaneous acts of civil disobedience.
 - Possible examples of such tactics could include:
 - False 911 reports (hand grenades inside a corporate chain department store, i.e. Old Navy, Gap, Starbucks, McDonalds, etc.)
 - Release of a live animal(s) in the above locations.

INTELLIGENCE

Domestic

- Anarchist Internet Chatter Centers on Visit by President Bush to Queens Firefighters at Elmhurst Social Club

- Although no activist group has publicly announced plans to protest outside tonight's Presidential appearance, the event itself was advertised on most major protest Internet sites yesterday and again today.
 - President Bush will meet with firefighters at the Italian Charities of America (83-20 Queens Boulevard) in Elmhurst, NY, tonight, September 1 at 2000 hours.
 - The President is expected to receive the endorsement of the Uniformed Firefighters Association of New York.
- Internet chatter indicates that activist groups are well-aware of this event and there is a strong possibility that protesters will be present at this location (although there is no specific call for such protest).

- Website Posts Anti-RNC Protest Party Invitation at 34th St. & 7th Ave.

- WWW.Counterconvention.org posted a listing for a "Protest Party" on Thursday, September 2, between 1845 and 2100 hours, at 34th St. and 7th Ave.
- The invitation instructs participants to get in one of the first 3 cars of the 1/9 local train going uptown to the 34th Street Station. They are to wait inside H&M store or Tad's Steaks restaurant.
- At 1920 hours, protesters are to exit the store/restaurant and line against the barricades where all of the delegates arrive and are escorted into the convention.
- Invitation then encourages protesters to "Give them the New York they are afraid of!" No further information included.
